

FEBC-Eurasia September Prayer Focus

Monday – 1

Dozens of people contact FEBC-Kazakhstan every month through TikTok asking for a physical Bible in the Kazakh language. Dastan, a young man, is one of them. We were able to give him a Bible personally and he has now started reading it for himself. Please pray for Dastan to find the truth of salvation in Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 2

Please pray for FEBC listeners in Russia who speak the Kabardin language. Most Kabardin people are Muslims, with many also holding on to old pagan traditions. Ask God to open their eyes to the light of the Gospel and draw many to Christ.

Wednesday – 3

Please pray for a new language group we are reaching—the Gagauz people in Moldova. Pray that God will move powerfully among them and that many Gagauzians will give their lives to Jesus.

Thursday – 4

Please pray for FEBC-Kazakhstan's youth meetings, where non-Christian Kazakh young people come together with young Christian Kazakhs. We play games and get to know one another, stopping for times of conversation and building relationships. This then allows us to share our faith with them in a non-threatening way. As people experience the kindness and love, with no expectations, barriers begin to come down and many young people are responding positively and are even coming to church.

Friday – 5

Please pray for our team in Uzbekistan. In one of the most restrictive environments in Eurasia, they are reaching hundreds of thousands of listeners with the Gospel. Lift up Sardor, Esther, and Umida by name, asking for God’s protection, boldness, and strength.

Saturday – 6

We continue to minister to Ukrainian widows of war. Hundreds of thousands have lost their husbands, yet many are finding new life in Christ. Pray for comfort, healing, and a deep faith as they rebuild their lives.

Sunday – 7

Pray for our listeners in Sloviansk, Ukraine. This is where FEBC built its very first station, and also where the war began in 2014. The front line is once again very close. Thousands have already come to Christ in Sloviansk—pray for even more to find hope in Jesus in the midst of suffering.

Monday – 8

Gulmira, from Uzbekistan, experienced great pain in her life. “I thought there was no choice but to continue trying to live with the pain—until I heard FEBC’s program online.” She wrote to FEBC, sharing her pain, asking them what hope they could offer her. Gulmira heard the Gospel for the first time in her life. “Please, pray for me...I want to be free in Christ, if this is possible.” Gulmira prayed with FEBC’s evangelists and put her faith in Christ. Please pray for her as she begins her journey with Jesus.

Tuesday – 9

Please pray for Sarbinaz, Snezhana, and Anel, who have been coming to FEBC-Kazakhstan’s youth meetings. Please pray for the Lord to continue drawing them to Himself and to overcome those things that are holding them back.

Wednesday – 10

Please pray for Varvara, a young new broadcaster in Kyiv. She is courageously reaching Ukrainian teens who are living through the horrors of war. Pray that God will use her voice to bring healing, hope, and faith to this generation.

Thursday – 11

Pray for FEBC's young volunteers. Dozens of young people in Russia, Ukraine, Moldova, and Kazakhstan are multiplying the ministry online and helping with follow-up. Ask God to pour out His grace on their lives and strengthen them in their calling.

Friday – 12

Please pray for FEBC-Eurasia's follow-up workers. These evangelists are leading people to Christ in Moldova, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, and beyond. Pray that they would be filled daily with God's Spirit, wisdom, and courage.

Saturday – 13

Pray for FEBC listeners in Ukraine who have lost their homes. Many are displaced, struggling to find work and stability, and writing to us for prayer. Ask God to provide for their needs and give them peace and strength.

Sunday – 14

Please pray for the team working on FEBC-Moldova's children's project, both the adults and the children. They are doing a great job, sharing Bible stories and messages about Jesus with listeners like Oleg, whose mother says that he loves watching the program. "He looks forward to every new video. And he's constantly talking about the latest Bible story he heard.

Monday – 15

Please pray for Yulia, from Uzbekistan, who recently gave her life to Christ. She is suffering from cancer, diabetes, and other disabilities. However, now, she has joy in her life, “I have hope. I can speak with my Father in heaven, now. I am reading my Bible every day,” said Yulia. Please pray for Yulia in her new walk with Christ.

Tuesday – 16

Please pray for FEBC-Kazakhstan’s new team members, Erbolat, Anel, Danial and Isaadil, who are working with young Kazakh people. This can be a scary and intimidating thing to do, but we are seeing much fruit from it. Please pray for courage and for the Lord to work through these young people mightily.

Wednesday – 17

Please pray for Dmitry, a listener from Pokrovsk. He shared: “We have to be very careful when we walk outside. We run from tree to tree so drone operators don’t see us and kill us. I just became a father, and I need to stay alive for my son. Your programs give us hope.” Pray for Dmitry, his family, and thousands of others like him.

Thursday – 18

FEBC-Eurasia is preparing for a major Next Gen conference in April. Our goal is to equip one another to reach those under 25. Many are searching for truth, but few hear the Gospel in ways they understand. Pray for a mighty movement of God among the young.

Friday – 19

We are regularly working with teenagers who watch FEBC-Moldova’s videos, almost none of whom are Christians. We hold meetings with them every week. Please pray for our team to continue to grow as we serve these teens who have great needs. Please also pray for the Lord to help us bring these teens into church, many are becoming interested—4 of our teens volunteered at a week-long children’s event our church was putting on, and several have already been baptized.

Saturday – 20

Please pray for the young families of our FEBC team members. Several of our ministers with small children are serving in dangerous and difficult circumstances. Pray for protection, encouragement, and joy in their homes.

Sunday – 21

Please pray for the leaders of FEBC-Eurasia and their families. Lift up Ulanbek, Alexey, Oleg, Eduard, Igor, Ruslan, Umida, Ilia, Victor, and Rudi—asking God to give them wisdom, strength, and courage.

Monday – 22

Pray for our listeners in the Buryat Republic and among other ethnic minorities. Many are suffering and without hope. We are reaching them in their heart languages and adapting programs to their cultures. Ask God to transform lives through the Gospel.

Tuesday – 23

Please pray for a young lady named Ulbolsyn, from Kazakhstan, who has been a Christian for 2 months. “My friends left me after they found out that I converted to Christianity. I have no friends. Can you accept me into your community?” Ulbolsyn lives in a remote part of the country, and it is difficult for us to meet her in person. Please pray for the Lord to provide a path for us to be able to meet with Ulbolsyn and encourage her in her new faith personally, and to provide believers that can surround her and help her grow.

Wednesday – 24

Please pray for FEBC-Moldova’s impact on children in Moldova. Recently, several children’s camps have started playing the Christian songs that we are producing. “The kids love the songs,” said one camp counselor. “They already know most of them by heart. And we love playing them! It’s so nice to hear them singing Christian songs!”

Thursday – 25

Please pray for teens across Eurasia who are listening to FEBC programs. Most have grown up with no Christian influence and no examples of faith. Pray that their hearts would be open and that many will encounter Jesus.

Friday – 26

Please pray for Dinara, a listener from Uzbekistan who had lost hope. “I’m tired of life,” she said. We prayed with Dinara, giving her an electronic Bible and sharing a powerful testimony from another Uzbek who came to faith in Christ. Please pray for Dinara to come to the Lord as we continue ministering to her.

Saturday – 27

Please pray for our team in Tajikistan. They are serving in one of the most restrictive countries in Eurasia. Ask God for boldness, protection, and a great revival in Tajikistan.

Sunday – 28

Please pray for Eva, one of the youngest bloggers in FEBC-Moldova’s team. Her family is facing difficulties right now, some serious struggles. Please pray for God’s favor and provision. Eva is passionate about leading young Moldovans to Christ and helping them through serious emotional trauma. Please pray for the Lord to provide for Eva and her family, and for her to be able to reach many more young people with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Monday – 29

Please pray for Khalmurat, from Kazakhstan, who has been watching our videos for young Kazakhs. He lives in a small, heavily Islamic village, and was very inspired by the videos he saw showing how Christians lived and worshiped. “Islam is so closed, discouraging art and music. But when I see Christians worship, they seem so genuine, so real. Is it possible for me, a non-Christian, to read the Bible?” We have invited Khalmurat to our youth meetings and to church. Please pray for him to come and learn more about the Lord in person.

Tuesday – 30

Please pray for FEBC-Moldova’s upcoming training retreat this September. We will build up the team, train new team members, and encourage and learn from one another. Please pray for the Lord to bless this time.
